
Jodi Greene

Senior Director for Policy Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of the Navy for Plans, Policy, Oversight, and Integration

Ms. Jodi Greene is the Senior Director for Policy in the Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of the Navy (DUSN). Ms. Greene is the principal advisor to the DUSN on general defense and foreign policy development and is responsible for coordination with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy. She supports the formulation of Department of the Navy-wide strategic plans, program objectives, policies and standards in support of major policy initiatives. Ms. Greene is responsible for ensuring Navy interests are actively promoted with the other departments and agencies.

From January 2004 until August 2007, Ms. Greene served as the Country Director for Russia in the Office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Europe-NATO in the Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) Policy. She was responsible for Russia and the Eurasia region.

Ms. Greene served as the Country Director and Senior Director for Korea in the Office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense of Asian and Pacific Affairs in OSD policy from 1997-2004, where she developed security policy on North Korea's nuclear program and managed defense policies in support of the security alliance with the Republic of Korea.

From 1995-1997, Ms. Greene served as the Special Assistant to the Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs at the National Security Council (NSC). While at the NSC, she monitored the Northern Ireland Peace Process, assisted in the development of plans for the African Crisis Response Initiative, and participated in negotiations with the governments of Peru and Ecuador regarding resolution of their border dispute.

Prior to joining OSD Policy, Ms. Greene served in the U.S. Air Force from 1990-1995, with assignments at the National Security Agency, in the Offices of the Secretary of the Air Force and the Secretary of Defense.
